

INDEX:	page
Foreword	i
Chapter 1. Science and observation
a. Some experiences in observation	1
b. At the frays of science	3
Notes and book references with Chapter 1	12
Chapter 2. My path of development	15
Notes and book references with Chapter 2	33
Chapter 3. Another approach of science
a. About the present-day methods of research	34
b. Perspectives for the development of a new practice of science	38
Notes and book references with Chapter 3	46
Chapter 4. Star science, the virgin mother of the sciences	48
Notes and book references with Chapter 4	57
Chapter 5. Elaborations of a new practice of science out of renewed star science
a. Headlines for a new star science
1. Introduction	59
2. Effects of stars and planets upon man and the earth	62
b. Elaboration of a renewed star science
1. The twelve Zodiacal images as archetypal concepts in their gestures	67
2. The seven planets as specific soul attitudes	106
3. The twelve rhythmical form gestures that give rise to shapes	121
4. The workings of the higher worlds in the physical	127
Notes and book references with Chapter 5	131
Chapter 6. The sciences, viewed out of man as a reflection of the cosmos a.1. Classification of the sciences according to the human soul	135
2. Theogony on the base of social organics	138
3. The recognition of the Angels and other spiritual beings	143
4. Angel hierarchies and their effects upon man and the Earth	147
5. Spheres of working of formative forces, planets and angels The envelops of the earth and the layers within
I. Beings in elements and earth realms	165
II. Life spheres of planets, earth envelopes and inner division	166
III. Natural beings from high to low	169

Notes and book references with Chapter 6a	184
b. Elaboration to science regions out of the new star science	191
1. β -sciences	192
1. Philosophy, love for wisdom	192
2. Musicology	203
Possible outworkings	210
3. From linguistics to Word using
I. Introduction	214
II. Grammar	217
III. Words and word sounds	219
IV. Literature	221
4. Mathematics
I. Introduction	222
II. Outworking per section	225
III. Future	226
2. γ -sciences	228
1. Psychology, soul science
I. Introduction	229
II. The soul and its functions	230
III. Future perspectives	238
2. Sociology	239
3. Pedagogy
I. Introduction	250
II. Basic principles of pedagogy	253
4. From describing to acting in history
I. Introduction	267
II. Group beings and individuals in the time process	269
III. Methods of historical research
1. Personal relation to different times	272
2. Research in groups	274
3. Filing-along research at a certain location	275
5. Rights
I. Introduction	276
II. Law and the ethical individualism	278
III. Elements for the reformulation of the juridical	280
6. Social geography/cultural anthropology	287
7. Economy
I. Introduction. The economy as being objective wishing- and thrive life	288
II. The sevenfoldness as possible structure for reorganization of the economical-social life	293
Notes and book references with Chapter 6b	299
3. β -sciences

A. In general	306
B.1. Natural science, physics
I. In general	311
II. Reformulation of physics and its divisions	315
III. Physics' subdivisions and their possibilities for application	323
IV. Some elaborations
Optics	327
Fields	328
Mechanics/dynamics	335
Thermodynamics, research of energy levels	335
B.2. Chemistry
I. Introduction	335
II. Astrosophical chemistry	338
B.3. Astronomy	347
B.4. Biology, doctrine of the living
I. Introduction	348
II. Geology out of the life world	361
III. Special biology	371
Time scheme of the Earth development	374
IV. Plant kingdom	376
V. Animal kingdom	381
VI. Microbiology	386
VII. Anthropology	389
Zodiacal star images and the human body	398
Organ processes out of the planet movements	404
B.5. Medicine art
I. State of affairs	411
II. Reformulation of healing art as moral technique	415
III. Therapeutic directions and possibilities	422
Notes and book references with Chapter 6c	426
 Chapter 7. Possibilities for the formation of a renewed university
a. Introduction	432
b. A threefold university within society	441
c. Applications in social life	448
 Notes and book references with Chapter 7	449